Psalm Response

'What great deeds the LORD worked for us! Indeed, we were glad'.

Why do these things happen?

All kinds of terrible things occur in our world, for instance earthquakes. The recent earthquakes in Myanmar got me thinking 'Why do these things happen?'

The earthquakes in Myanmar have had a devastating impact. Two large earthquakes have shaken the country, followed by further shocks. It is the most powerful earthquake to strike Myanmar since 1912. At least 2,800 people have died and over 4,600 are injured – many of them children. Sadly, numbers are expected to rise further.

We might ask ourselves why a perfectly good, almighty and all-knowing God permits these terrible things. This is a complex theological and philosophical question, one with no definitive answer. Some would argue that these things are a test of faith, some interpret natural disasters as a sign of divine judgment or warning, others believe that God is in control of all things, even natural disasters, and that He allows them for reasons that may not be fully understood by humans.

As a Catholic scientist, I take the view that natural disasters are simply the result of natural laws and processes, and that God is not directly responsible for them. I would argue that this way of thinking aligns with Catholic teaching, something called natural law. Natural law refers to a universal, objective moral order accessible through reason. What do you think?

Whatever the philosophical and theological complexities of these arguments, our response must be to 'love your neighbour as yourself' (Mark 12 30-31). As Christians we must do all we can to respond to these disasters in a practical and meaningful way, including prayer.

Will you Walk in Witness to Your Faith in Jesus?

On Palm Sunday, 13th April, afternoon at 3pm we will gather outside St. Bede's Church and walk in witness to our faith through Victoria Park praying and singing and showing our faith in our community. Will you come? Will you change your usual routine and come and walk as a Christian as we enter the holiest of weeks? We may be laughed at; we may be ridiculed – but so was He...

4pm Mass on Palm Sunday

After the Walk of Witness there will be a 4pm Mass at St. Bede, yet the Mass will be with the Neo Catechumenate Community and presided over by their priest. You are all welcome to join this Mass, but it will be a bit longer than the usual 4pm Mass!

PLEASE NOTE: if you have been to confession during Lent, especially in the past few weeks, you do not need to come again. We have offered lots of opportunities for confession this Lent, they are all valid! We can only find three priests to hear confessions on the 15th, so please come to confession if you have not been, but if you have been to confession recently, bask in your forgiveness!

Relics of St. Columba, St. Andrew and St. Margaret of Scotland

St. Wilfrid's Knights of St. Columba have been asked to host a visit of the relics of these three great saints in our parish. What an honour! They will visit our church after Easter, and we shall pray with the relics asking their intercession for our mission here in Widnes.

Our Lenten Journey 2025 Week 5: Pause For Thought

As a parishioner of St. Wilfrid's could we commit to giving some time each day this coming week in silent prayer and contemplation? We could ask ourselves:

- Do I create time to listen to God?
- Do I listen to my own conscience and act on it?
- What is the Lord asking of me?
- Am I willing and ready to respond to his call?

'Obeying God is listening to God, having an open heart to follow the path that God points out to us.'

Pope Francis

CAFOD Soup and Supper Evening

Part of our lenten practices should be to share 'your bread with the hungry' – we shall have a time of prayer and a shared supper at the Parish Hall at St. John Fisher on Thursday 10th April at 7pm. A delicious supper will be provided and sometimes we have cakes too (if you have given them up for Lent, you are allowed on this evening!), then you are asked to donate what you have saved and donate the money to CAFOD which will be added to our Lenten Fast Collection.

Parish Choir

We will be practicing music for the Easter Services on Tuesday 8th April at St. Michael's Church, 7pm. Please note the change of venue. As usual, if you have not sung before, or not sung for years, or have not been part of this group previously, or are only able to come along occasionally, it does not matter, you would be most welcome. Sadly though, All members of the choir must be over 18 due to safeguarding guidance.

Chrism Mass

Wednesday 16th April, leaving St. Bede at 6pm and returning around 10pm. If you would like to come on the coach, please pass your name and an offering of £5 per person into the Parish Office asap.

St Michael's Church

It has been communicated to St. Wilfrid's Parish this week that the request for a new heating system at St. Michael's Church has been turned down by the Archdiocesan Trustees. We await clarification.

Lourdes Collection

On Easter Sunday at all Masses there will be a second collection to help our four young people, Chrissie, Christopher, Caolan and Hannah to attend the Lourdes Pilgrimage this summer. They work so hard when they are there and have a wonderful experience of God and His Church. Please be generous, as you always are!
